	Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4
Touring Region	Bordeaux city	Atlantic coast	Bordeaux city & Pessac-Leognan	Bordeaux city & Sauternes
Accommodation	4 night's accommodation with breakfast at Petit Hotel Labottiere in Bordeaux city centre.
Activities	You will be met at Bordeaux airport by GT and be introduced to your hire car and your pre-programmed GPS system. Check-in to your accommodation in Bordeaux city. This afternoon will be kept free of pre-booked appointments so you can shake off your jet lag. A dinner table will be booked at the delightful little restaurant in Bordeaux. Their menu is not very extensive as they focus on using only the very freshest of ingredients, but everything they serve is wonderful, whilst also being quite simple.	This morning head out to the coastal region. It is very different to the rest of the region and well-worth visiting. Your morning at the coast will start with an appointment at a caviar farm where you will receive a tour then taste their delicacies. From here you can visit the intriguing oyster farming villages of Gujan Mestras. A lunch of freshly grown local oysters served with prawns will be served for you, accompanied by chilled white wine. The lunch is very simple and informal but comprises the freshest imaginable ingredients served in a unique location, amongst the oyster farming huts. This afternoon will be kept flexible allowing you to do whatever your mood dictates. A walk up Europe's largest sand dune, the Dune du Pyla, is highly recommended. The views from the top are simply stunning. Alternatively you may wish to stroll down quiet stretches of beach, take a boat ride in to the bay or visit a tranquil ornithological park. There is plenty to do and everything will be written up in your guidebook. Suggestions will be made in your guidebook of where you could eat, either at the coast or back in Bordeaux city tonight, and a reservation made if you wish.	Your morning today will be spent exploring Bordeaux city. It has breathtaking 18th century architecture that is easy to enjoy since Bordeaux has more pedestrianised streets than any other in Europe. The best way to discover it is to take an organised walking tour of the city. This will be organized for you at 10:00am in the morning. You will be met by a guide who will take you on a private walking tour of around 2 hours in duration. After lunch you will drive in to the neighbouring Pessac-Leognan appellation where a tour and tasting to a vineyard will be organised for you. As you have expressed an interest in architecture, this visit can be followed by the opportunity to see 'Corbusier's Pessac'. It consists of buildings on three roads that were the first hallmark styling of architectural modernism. This evening you will be booked in to a fabulous little gastronomic restaurant in Bordeaux. It really is an experience not to miss and is somewhere which is not typically frequented other than by locals in the know.	This morning you can choose to have a bit of a lazier start to the day if you wish. After breakfast we then recommend that you take a visit to the, open-air, organic food market held each Sunday morning in Bordeaux by the quayside. It is a wonderful place to pick up an informal alfresco lunch to enjoy by the river. After lunch you will drive south-east to the Sauternes area. It is steeped with history and culture. You will have the opportunity to tour some of its picturesque countryside and visit one of its historical châteaux. During the afternoon a visit to one of Sauterne's sweet white wine châteaux will also be organised for you. This will be organised at a small family-run property where you will be shown around by its owner. Bordeaux city is free to enjoy as you wish tonight. Restaurant recommendations will be described in your guidebook and a reservation made if you wish.

7-day/6-night Self-drive Bespoke Itinerary of the Bordeaux region

This is purely an example of a past itinerary – ask us to personalised your own Bespoke itinerary

Last 3 days

	Day 5	Day 6	Day 7
Touring Region	Médoc, Blaye & St Emilion	St Emilion	Pomerol & Entre-deux-Mers
Accommodation	2 night's accommodation with breakfast at Belles Perdix on the Château Troplong-Mondot estate just outside the town of St Emilion.
Activities	Check-out of your accommodation and head northwards up the left side of the estuary in to the Médoc wine area. Your first appointment of the day to a highly regarded château, in the Pauillac appellation, where you will attend a private wine coaching session. The focus will be on the wines of the left bank (the Médoc). During the session you will taste wines from Margaux, St-Julien, Pauillac &amp; St-Estephe. Through the tasting &amp; discussion of these wines you will discover some of the subtle differences between the four most prestigious appellations of the Médoc. Lunch will be served for you at a busy restaurant in Pauillac – one that has an interesting mix of clientele from local workmen to vineyard owners. Its menu is simple but the food – whilst somewhat over generous – is great. After lunch a private tour and tasting to a Grand Cru Classé estate in one of the appellations that you learnt about earlier in the day will be organised for you. Cross over to the right bank via the 30-minute car ferry departing from just north of Margaux and arriving in to the citadel town of Blaye. Spend an hour or so wandering around this incredibly well preserved and amazingly un-touristy (as yet!) citadel of Blaye. It is a magnificent walled citadel designed in the 17th century by the famous military architect Vauban. It is similar in style to the more well known walled citadel of Carcasson but benefits from not being overrun by visitors. Then head down the picturesque 'route de Camargue' and on to St Emilion to check in to your new place of accommodation in the grounds of a Château on the outskirts of the town. Nothing will be pre-booked for your dinner, but suggestions will be made in your guidebook (including the opportunity to eat at the magnificent restaurant at your accommodation if you wish).	After breakfast make your way to the outskirts of the town where you will start your second private wine class. This time you will explore in detail the wines of the right bank (St Emilion and Pomerol). Once again it will be a private session just for the two of you so can be tailored to your own specific areas of interest. It will include the tasting of 4 excellent wines from these two appellations. Various lunch suggestions will be made in your guidebook including a nice picnic spot in the hills above St Emilion should you wish to have an alfresco lunch. After lunch a pre-paid guided tour of St Emilion's incredible underground monuments will be organised, giving you an interesting insight in to the town's history and geology. It is a significant part of its culture that is hidden away and can only be viewed with an authorised guide. You will now have some free time to explore the cobbled streets of St Emilion. The buildings all tell a different architectural story and it is the region's most visited town and for good reason. At the end of the afternoon a tour and tasting to a St Emilion Grand Cru Classé estate will be organised for you. Your evening meal tonight will be at a small gastronomic restaurant in St Emilion town.	After a leisurely breakfast make your way to the neighbouring wine appellation of Pomerol. You will have learnt about their wines yesterday in your coaching session and this morning you will see and taste things first hand at a small estate where you will receive a private tour and tasting. After this visit drive in to Entre-deux-Mers. It is Bordeaux's largest wine appellation and is home to a myriad of wonderful little family run vineyards yet is surprisingly often overlooked by visitors to the region. In addition to the attraction of the wines it is also the area of the Bordeaux region that has the most picturesque countryside, rich culture and historic villages (all of which will be described in your guidebook). Your first port of call will be a lovely little restaurant in the countryside run by a husband and wife team. Their service is not the fastest but the food is magnificent. After lunch a route will be suggested that will take you through nice countryside, past ancient abbeys and through bastide towns and on to a family-run vineyard where you will be shown around by its owner and invited to taste their wide range of wines. Bordeaux airport is a relatively short drive from here so you will have plenty of time to drive there in good time for your 5:10pm departure flight.
Included Meals	Lunch (excl drinks) at an informal restaurant in Pauillac.	Evening meal (excl drinks) at a small gastronomic restaurant in St Emilion town.	Lunch (excl drinks) at a delightful restaurant in the Entre-deux-Mers countryside.
